April 29 & 30, 2009 Presque Isle Inn & Convention Center

The Maine Joint Environmental Training Coordinating Committee (JETCC) is pleased to again join the Maine Department of Environmental Protection, New England Interstate Water Pollution Control Commission (NEIWPCC) and Maine Wastewater Control Association (MWWCA) to bring the Tenth "North Country Convention" to Presque Isle, Maine on April 29 & 30, 2009.

The two-day agenda will feature a variety of technical sessions, vendor demonstrations, luncheon speakers and opportunities to meet and network with others in our field. You will also have the chance to see firsthand some of the newest technologies available. This biennial convention has been developed to address the specific training needs of environmental professionals in Aroostook County as well as those along the Canadian border.

We are pleased to offer a diverse agenda this year with a variety of specialized topics suited for operators in the fields of water and wastewater treatment. The Agenda is being updated weekly so keep checking our web site www.jetcc.org for the most current session listings.

A reception with raffles is planned for the afternoon of April 29 and a Full Buffet breakfast in the Exhibitor Area is scheduled on the morning of April 30.

A total of 12 hours of training credit is available for the entire convention with 6 hours of training available each day!

When making overnight reservations at the Presque Isle Inn & Convention Center mention that you are with the North Contry Convention to get conference rates on your room!
